"Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World."
HARPER'S MAGAZINE.
Notices of the Press.
The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many hands it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.
—Boston Globe.
The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with it, it has not led the time, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude.
The Magazine has done good, and not evil all the days of its life.—Boston Eagle.

HARPER'S BAZAR.
Notices of the Press.
The Bazar is edited with a contribution of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveller.
The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by its droll and picturesque, to the young ladies by its fashionable and endless variety, to the prudent matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to patrons by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing-gowns. And the reading-matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the leisure enjoyment it affords.
